

Theopia Renee Jackson, Ph.D.
CA: PSY15699

Saybrook University
55 Eureka Street
Pasadena, CA 91103
tjackson@saybrook.edu
(626) 316 - 5329

Personal Residence
800 Bleak Hill Place
Upper Marlboro, MD 20774
t.jackson@abpsi.org
Mobile Work: (925) 786 - 6815

CURRICULUM VITAE

The Association of Black Psychologists, Inc., 2019- 2021 President

The Wright Institute, Berkeley, CA 1992-1995
Degree: Ph.D. Major: Clinical Psychology
Dissertation: Family Matters: African american adolescents' psychosocial development and kinship
Award: Dissertation of Distinction
Howard University, Washington, DC 1983-1986
Degree: MS Major: Clinical Psychology

POST-DEGREED PROFESSIONAL TRAINING

Association of Family Therapists of Northern California Postgraduate Training Program June 2005
Year-long academic and experiential training intensive which included case presentations/live consultations and the utilization of various theories in working with couples and families

CLINICAL EXPERIENCE

Integrative clinical practice that utilizes strengths-based trauma-informed biopsychosocialculturalspiritual models of care that are informed by African-centered and humanistic principles that are infused with several approaches like cognitive behavioral therapies, motivational interviewing, relational theory, multiculturalism & social justice, narrative approaches, play therapy, complementary pain strategies, and systems theory.

UCSF Benioff Children's Hospital Oakland 2007 – 2018
(Formerly Children's Hospital & Research Center Oakland)

Medical Resident Support Group 2014 – 2018
Health Psychologist
Weekly group stress management trauma-informed care support group for medical residents working with the most acute traumas; pediatric intensive care unit, hematology & oncology, and bone marrow transplant unit.

Healthy Hearts Program 2014-2017
Health Psychologist
Serving on a multidisciplinary team providing psychosocial assessments and intervention services for children at risk for diabetes and/or coping with childhood obesity.

Department of Psychology 2007-2015
Site Training Coordinator
Training and supervision of psychology practicum students, interns, and fellows; training medical residents; provide outpatient/inpatient mental health services for diverse populations presenting with complex medical/social/emotional challenges; inpatient mental health consultation/training for health care professionals; Early Periodic Screening, Diagnosis and Treatment (EPSDT) contract.

- Northern California Sickle Cell Center 2007-2011
Staff Psychologist
 Member of a multidisciplinary team; provide psychosocial/educational services for chronically ill populations; research, professional training and grant writing responsibilities
- Private Practice, Oakland, Ca. 2015 - 2018
 Part-time practice specializing in child, adolescent, and family therapy; treating a range of issues; utilizing culturally-informed creative/expressive arts and play therapy techniques.
- Consultant/Trainer 2000 - Current
 Trainer and consultant regarding cultural competencies, multiculturalism, social justice, trauma-informed care, and culturally responsive services. Contributor to national/local policies, decisions, projects, and/or implementation planning.  References upon request.
- Selected Projects
- Therapist in Residency (TnR) Program, Oakland, Ca. 2018 – Current
 Mental health program grounded in Black psychology and funded by the California Endowment.
- The Phoenix Project, San Francisco, Ca. 2017 - Current
 Innovative multi-disciplinary program serving at-potential youth in at-risk environments from a culturally-affirming strengths-based trauma-informed approach
- Adaptive Mind Project. Core Team Member.
- The Wright Institute; Berkeley CA. 2000 -2011
 Psychology graduate program
Collaborative Supervisor
 Supervision of psychology interns
- Clearwater Counseling and Assessment (formally La Cheim); Oakland, CA 2005 - 2007
 Community mental health provider (fee for service and victims of violent crimes)
Therapist
 Providing play therapy, family therapy, and parenting psycho-education/support
Supervisor
 Psychology and MFT interns (children, adolescent, parental and family therapy)
- La Cheim Children and Family Services; Oakland, CA. 2002 -2005
 Mental health service provider for victims of crime (VOC)
Therapist
 Providing play therapy, family therapy and parenting psycho-education/support
Supervisor
 Psychology and MFT interns (children, adolescent, parental and family therapy)
- Women’s Therapy Center; El Cerrito, CA. 2001 – 2004
 Community mental health agency
Clinical Director
 Responsible for oversight and implementation related to training issues, program management, and faculty/supervisor coordination
- ACADEMIC & ADMINISTRATIVE EXPERIENCE
- An accomplished educator and administrator that employs collaborative processes that foster critical thinking, creativity, effective infra-structure and solution-focused outcomes*
- Saybrook University; Oakland, Ca. 2000-Current
 Progressive hybrid distance learning graduate program
- Program Chair 2017 - Current

- Clinical Psychology Degree Program in the Department of Humanistic & Clinical Psychology (Co-Chair)
Manage the clinical psychology degree program, including student recruitment & retention, curriculum/program development, faculty supervision, and budgetary oversight
- Program Director 2015-2017
Department of Humanistic & Clinical Psychology
Responsible for budget management, programming, and delivery of graduate degree programs in psychology and clinical psychology (100+ faculty; 350+ students).
- Executive Faculty 2003 – 2015
School of Clinical Psychology
Course development/instruction (e.g., development across the lifespan, ethics, social psychology, multiculturalism, health psychology, humanistic psychology, etc.), dissertation/master research supervision, degree program development and consultation, academic governance
- Assistant Chair of Psychology 2011 – 2012
Responsible for evaluation of new applicants, degree completion audits, student complaints management, and facilitate WASC accreditation review process
- Assistant Academic Dean/Dean of Students 2003-2007
Multiple responsibilities: student services, supervised academic advisors, organized residential conferences, managed the academic catalog, and budget oversight
- Academic Advisor/Adjunct Faculty 2000-2003
Academic advisor and instructor for graduate psychology degree students
- John F. Kennedy University, Orinda, CA 2000 - 2009
Undergraduate and graduate school
Adjunct Faculty
Instructor for School of Liberal Arts and School of Education
Supervised master thesis research; child and adolescent development course instructor
- The Wright Institute, Berkeley, CA. 2002 – 2004
Graduate psychology program.
Adjunct Faculty
Dissertation committee membership, course instructor

AWARDS

2019 Cultural Practitioner Award. Mental Health California™
2017 Service Award. The Association of Black Psychologists, Inc.
2013 Courage & Hope Award. CoachArt

SELECTED APPOINTMENTS

Invited participant in The Office of Minority Health February 2011 Meeting: Pathways to Integrated Health Care: Strategies for African American Communities and Organizations Consensus Statement and Recommendations. Published April 2011.

Invited participant in the HOGG Foundation for Mental Health: Enhancing the Delivery of Health Care: Eliminating Health Disparities through a Culturally & Linguistically Centered Integrated Health Care Approach. Published July 2012.

SELECTED PUBLICATIONS

Jackson, T. (2019). The history of black psychology and humanistic psychology: Synergetic prospects. In L. Hoffman, H. Cleare-Hoffman, N. Granger, Jr. & D. St. John (Eds.), Humanistic Approaches to Multiculturalism and Diversity: Perspectives on Existence and Difference. Taylor & Francis/Routledge: New York.

Jackson, T. (2018). Envisioning mandated reporting in the therapeutic relationship through a social justice lens. The California Psychologist. The Future of Psychology: 50 Years from Now. Fall 51 (4), p. 40 – 42.

Hoffman, L., Cleare-Hoffman, H. P., & Jackson, T. (2016). Humanistic psychology and multiculturalism: History, current status, and advancements. In K. J. Schneider & J. F. Pierson (Eds.), The handbook of humanistic psychology: Leading edges of theory, research, and practice (2nd edition). Thousand Oaks, CA: Sage.

Jackson, T. Cyberbullying: The definition, the law, and the responsibilities. In Children's Handprints. A Publication of Children's Hospital & Research Center Oakland, Fall 2011, pages 21-23.

Jackson, T. & Robinson, R. (2007). Deepening the wounds: Disparities in incarceration rates for women and the traumatizing effects on black children. Position paper. The Association of Black Psychologists, Inc. www.abpsi.org.

SELECTED PRESENTATIONS

Jackson, T. Childhood sex trafficking: Kasserian Ingera - And how are the children? Invited speaker. National Medical Association. Collaboration: A Key to Cultural Change to Achieve Health Equity. Washington, DC. March 30, 2019.

Jackson, T. Culturally-affirming relationships: Expanding how we work with persons of African ancestry. Invited speaker. The National Alliance to End Homelessness. San Diego, CA. February 21, 2019.

Jackson, T. Building resilience in the face of climate change-related traumatic experiences. Invited speaker. ANR Program Team Meetings Integrating Climate Change in California Cooperative Extension Programs Merced, CA. January 23, 2019.

Jackson, T. Promoting Collaborations: Navigating Troubled Waters from a Social Justice Stance. Invited speaker. Disadvantaged Community and Tribal Program "Lessons Learned". Kings Beach, CA. November 8, 2018.

Jackson, T. & A. Lucas. Modern families: Courageous conversations about culture, diversity, and divorce. Plenary session. International Academy of Collaborative Professionals. Seattle, WA. October 25, 2018.

Jackson, T. Blending worlds: Complexities of multiculturalism in the collaborative divorce model. Invited trainer. International Academy of Collaborative Professionals. Seattle, WA. October 24, 2018.

Jackson, T. Identifying & implementing effective mental health strategies in the black community. Panelist. Congressional Black Caucus. Washington, DC. September 2018.

Jackson, T. What about the people?: Stories of resources for social resilience. Invited speaker 3rd Adaptation Forum; Sacramento, CA. August 27, 2018.

Jackson, T. Building resilience in the face of climate change-related traumatic experiences. Invited speaker. International Transformational Resilience Coalition: Preparing People for Climate Change. Oakland, CA. January 23, 2018.

Jackson, T. & Jackson, J. Drawing upon our African roots in countering implicit bias in the workforce. The 49th Association of Black Psychologists Annual International Convention. Houston, Tx. July 2017. 2 CE units.

Jackson, T. The intersection of historical trauma, racial identity development and help-seeking behaviors in African American families [Webinar]. Sponsored by SAMHSA. Kujichagulia (Swahili – Self-determination): Effective Strategies in Addressing Trauma in African American Children, Youth, and Families. February 2, 2017.

Jackson, T. Racism in healthcare is real: Now what do you do about it? Movement is Life: A caucus on arthritis and musculoskeletal health disparities. November 10-11, 2016. Washington, DC. 2 CE units

Consoli, A. J., James Myers, L., Okazaki, S., Awad, G. H., & Jackson, T. Ethnic psychological associations expand psychological knowledge: Alternative cultural paradigms. American Psychological Association Annual Convention. Denver, Co. August 4 – 7, 2016.

Falconer, J. W., Cokley, K. O., Begay, D.P., Beckstein, A., Morse, G. S., Halkovic, A., & Jackson, T. Psychologists as activists: Unifying black lives matter, native lives matter, & occupy movement. American Psychological Association Annual Convention. Denver, Co. August 4 – 7, 2016.

Jackson, T. (2015). Humanistic psychology, your house is on fire: There is no rest for the weary! Keynote address. Humanistic (R)evolution: Innovative Relevance in a Complex World. Society for Humanistic Psychology, American Psychological Association (Div. 32). Chicago, Illinois.

Jackson, T. Healers heal thyself: Trauma-informed care within a humanistic frame. Keynote Speaker. Fourth International Conference on Existential Psychology. Authenticity and Human Potential. Hong Kong, China. May 28, 2016.

Haggins, K. & Jackson, T. Community defined practice: Emotional emancipation circles. The Sixth Annual CIBHS Evidence-Based Practices Symposium, Sacramento, Ca. April 22, 2016.

Jackson, T. Systematic oppression, complex trauma, & African American women: Implications for healing and recovery. Berkeley Mental Health conference: Addressing Trauma from the Inside Out: A Woman's Perspective, Berkeley, Ca. May 8, 2013.

Jackson, T. Healing the village: Healing the child. Presented for Berkeley Mental Health conference: Phoenix Rising: African Americans Implementing Positive Solutions to Eliminate Inequities and Disparities. Berkeley, Ca. February 13, 2013.

Jackson, T. & King, J. Systematic Oppression and Resiliency. Presented for Alameda County Trauma Focused Care. Oakland, Ca. January 17, 2013.

Jackson, T. & Rowe, D. An African-centered Multicultural Conceptualization for Clinical Supervision. The 44th Association of Black Psychologists Annual International Convention. Los Angeles, Ca. July 2012. 2 CE units.

Jackson, T. & McNeil, C. Child Abuse and Reporting Laws within an African-centered Approach. The 44th Association of Black Psychologists Annual International Convention. Los Angeles, Ca. July 2012.

Jackson, T. The Tale of Two Cities: Humanistic Psychology within Cultural Context presented at the Society for Humanistic Psychology, Pittsburgh, PA. March, 2012. 2 CE units.

Jackson, T. The Process of Becoming Integrated. Invited address at the Office of Minority Health and HOGG Foundation for Mental Health Conference. Quality Health Care for All: Eliminating Racial and Ethnic Health Disparities Through Integrative Health Care Conference, Austin, Texas, February 2012.

MEDIA PRESENTATIONS

Jackson, T. & Jackson, T. The Bay Area Chapter of The Association of Black Psychologists. KBLX Cares with Sterling James. August 29, 2016. Retrieved August 30, 2016: <http://www.kblx.com/blogs/kblx-cares/association-black-psychologists>

Jackson, T. Association of black psychologists: Emotional emancipation circles. CBS SF Bay Sunday with Frank Mallicoat. January 27, 2015. Retrieved August 30, 2016: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Iqm1Lm7shT4>

Jackson, T. Emotional emancipation circles. Lifestyle Show with Frankie Boyer. January 28, 2015. Retrieved August 30, 2016: <http://frankieboyer.typepad.com/blog/2015/01/>

Jackson, T., McFadden, F., Williams, W., & Nguyen, K-A. Fighting a global disease. Talking with Henrietta. East Palo Alto Today. September 17, 2012. Retrieved August 30, 2016: www.epatoday.org/tv.html

MEMBERSHIPS

American Psychological Association, Division 32 Society of Humanistic Psychology; Member-at-Large
 Association of Family Therapists of Northern California; Culturally Accountable Committee Co-Founder
 Bay Area Black Mental Health Professionals Network
 BayKids – Board Member
 California Psychological Association, Division VII Social Justice; Chair; CARE, member
 Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., Life Member
 Sickle Cell Community Advisory Committee (SCCAC), Medical Advisory Board Member

Selected Dissertations Supervised

Apostle, D.P. (2013). Exploring the Use of the Construct Homonegativity in Gay White Men's Discourse.

Braxton, S. (2017). Reawakening Sekhmet: The Experience of African American Women Survivors of Childhood Sexual Abuse with Kemetic Yoga Practice.

Corbett, A.J. (2017). The Voices of Survivors: An Exploration of the Contributing Factors that Assisted with Exiting from Commercial Sexual Exploitation in Childhood.

Ford, B. (2012). Using Parent-Child Interaction Therapy with an Adolescent Diagnosed with Asperger's Syndrome.

Johnson, O.O. (2017). The Lived Experiences of African American Males Who Enter Reentry of Rehabilitation Programs after Incarceration: Culturally-Informed Lessons Learned.

Jones, K. (2010). Expatriate Warrior: The Experiences of World War II American Veterans of African Descent.

Kotolski, A.M. (2015). The Lived Experience of Adults with a Sibling Diagnosed with Autism: Implications for Post Parental Care.

McNeil, C. (2016). Case Study Exploring the Impact of a Library-Based Canine-Assisted Reading Program on the Reading Attitude of Elementary School-Aged Struggling Readers.

Newton, M.B. (2015). Development of Existential-Humanistic Multiculturally-and Class-Informed Recommendations for Working with Persons Experiencing Homelessness and/or Poverty.

Serle, J.L. (2013). The Experiences of White Northern American Parents that have Adopted Young Black Children from Africa.